SRI T. R. SHAMANNA.—I appreciate the gesture made by the Government in removing the partial control of cement. But I request the Hon. Minister to take steps to see that dealers do not take under advantage and put the consumers to hardship. A severe warning be given to dealers not to exploit the public.

SRI S. M. KRISHNA.—My own submission is that Government alone would not be enough for this purpose. Consumer' resistanos also must take shape, must take deep root. If there is any dealer who is found to be wanting and who do not adhere to the guidelines laid down, it mu·t be brought to the notice of the Government, so that we can proceed against them. I would like the enlightened members like Sri T. R. Shamanna to try to concenerate in moulding consumers resistance movement in at least Bangalore City.
